DUNMORE TIDY TOWNS We have just completed Dunmore's Entry Form for this year's National Tidy Towns Competition. We have made Significant progress over the years and we are now positioned at No. 13 out of 45 entries from Co.Galway. By responding positively to the requests outlined below you will be doing your part in continuing our progress as showing the positive spirit that our community is noted for.

1. Keep area in front of your house/business litter free.
2. Maybe add a window box or hanging basket where suitable.
3. Remove weeds from paths and walls around the house/business if necessary.
4. Paint the Fascia of your premises where necessary.
5. Undertake to water and weed a public flower bed or tub near to your own house.
6. Please use the recycling facilities at Eurospar.
7. Keep the graveyard tidy by using the segregated waste disposal silos provided at the rear of the graveyard.
8. Refrain from erecting posters or signs within the speed limits during the June Judging Period. This is a request and your co-operation will be much appreciated by the whole community and the adjudicators.
