MASS SCHEDULE AND GUIDELINES

Following the recent Pastoral Council Meeting it was that decided that Mass times will remain the same for the coming months. Beginning in January the Saturday Vigil Mass will be held in Kiltvna and Sunday morning Mass will resume in Garrafrauns. Weekday Masses will continue for now in Dunmore Church – this is to give as many people as possible the opportunity to attend a weekday Mass. The Pastoral Council are encouraged to see so many people as people wearing masks and face coverings. They would like to thank parishioners for their co-operation to date with the guidelines. We welcome any feedback from parishioners and would be glad to hear from anyone interested in helping as part of the Welcome Team in our Churches.

BOOKING OF MASSES

We ask people where possible to book their anniversary Masses for weekdays. While honoring existing bookings, Mass intentions at Weekends will be kept to a minimum.

MASS ATTENDANCE

It is wonderful to see people returning to Mass. We encourage those who can attend a weekday Mass in their Church to leave places for those who can only attend at weekends. Thank you for your co-operation.

DIOCESAN CHANGES

We wish Fr. Paddy Mooney, Parish Priest of Glenamaddy and Williamstown every blessing on his retirement. We wish Fr. Eugene O'Boyle every blessing as he takes up his appointment in our cluster parishes. We wish Fr. Frank Conlisk every blessing as he takes up duties in our Deanery parishes in Kilconley and Miltown at the end of the month.
