EASTER POEM

Sturdy, deep green tulip shoots.

How did they know
it was time to push up through the long-wintered soil?

How did they know
it was the moment to resurrect, while thick layers of stubborn ice still pressed the bleak ground flat?

But the tulips knew.

They came, rising strongly,
a day after the ice died.

There's a hope-filled place in me that also knows when to rise,

that waits for the last layer of ice
to melt into obscurity.

It is urged by the strong sun warming my wintered heart.
It is nudged by the Secret One,
calling, calling, calling:
"Arise, my love, and come."

My heart stirs like dormant tulips and hope comes dancing forth.

Not unlike the Holy One kissing the morning sun,
waving a final farewell
to a tomb emptied of its treasure.
