We welcome into our Parish community

Áed Patrick Burke son of Áine & Brian Burke, Ballintise who was baptised in Dunmore church on 30th January

WELCOME –to our first and second year students from Dunmore Community School who will be leading us in our liturgy on Monday morning at 10 am. We invite you to join us.

DUNMORE TIDY TOWNS - Work is well underway to further improve the community environment.

Stone Flower Beds, Resurfacing of river Walk, Completion of Tuam road Path, Sign cleaning, Graveyard maintenance, 500 bulbs were planted last Autumn, Wild Flowers and Perennial Planting . Congratulations to the Rugby and Soccer Clubs for providing a wonderful Amenity which integrates with the existing riverwalk way, Both walking amenities are now lit by the state of the art led lighting. This project will provide a year round exercise asset for our community. The wooden flower planters have been removed and disposed of because of their poor condition, in this context we wish to thank councillor Joe Sheridan for sourcing a €1500 grant to defray the cost of their removal and disposal. We welcome Galway County Council Investment of €80,000 for footpaths at the Green and Barrack Street, in particular the councils commitment to provide Dunmore's first pedestrian crossing at the National School on Sion Hill.

DUNMORE ST PATRICK'S DAY PARADE - After a successful meeting on Thursday last, we are delighted to announce that Dunmore St. Patrick's Day Parade will return this year! We are appealing to all businesses, sporting clubs and organisations to get involved. We haven't been able to have a parade in a few years, so let's all make an extra effort this year! The parade is open to everyone, and its success is dependent on everyone. Meetings every Thursday at 9.30pm in Glynn's Bar. All enquiries to 087-9591725

DUNMORE COMMUNITY COUNCIL BINGO - is fully back in action next Sunday 13th February at 4pm in the Town Hall. Doors will open at 3.30pm.
