DUNMORE CHOIR VISIT TO CAMBRIDGE

Rehearsals are in full swing in Dunmore for our upcoming visit to Cambridge from October 27th -30th, 2023. Dunmore Church Choir is honoured to have been invited to sing in the prestigious, breathtaking Corpus Christi Chapel where we will bring our rich musical heritage to an enchanting charity concert on Friday Oct. 27th at 6.30pm. In aid of East Anglia's Children's Hospices, we are delighted to present this concert, where every note sung carries the promise of a better future for children in need. Under the baton of musical director Annette Walsh and accompanied by Eoghan Connolly, our diverse programme will transport the audience through the ages, featuring sacred and secular masterpieces by Bach, Vivaldi, Handel, Schubert and Faure through the more contemporary Jenkins and Lightfoot, filling the chapel's sacred space with timeless melodies and captivating harmonies. Our repertoire will also include Bestor/ Klouse's evocative 'Prayer of the Children' and some hauntingly beautiful Irish airs by O'Riada, Coulter and Weatherly, adding a touch of the Emerald Isle to our musical journey. On Sat. Oct.28th, we sing evening mass at the beautiful, majestic Church of Our Lady & the English Martyrs, presenting a rich, spiritual repertoire of sacred church music including some aforementioned classics from Friday night's concert with additional favourites from local composer Fergal King and ever-popular Irish responses. Sincere thanks to Dunmore native Dr. Dervila Glynn, a Cambridge resident and Cambridge Neuroscience Strategic Manager at University of Cambridge, who has facilitated our visit and has been liaising on our behalf with church authorities and local venues to ensure a memorable, magical, musical trip for all.
