The pilgrimage takes place on Sunday 27th July at 5pm.

It is also known as Garland Sunday or Reek Sunday.

Local history tells of St. Patrick blessed the well on his way from Mayo to Shrulie.

The Garland or Pattern Sunday provides an opportunity for pilgrims to unite in prayer and thanksgiving for the faith that has been handed down through the generations.

Come and feel the calmness and tranquillity that many have experienced there.

As this is Jubilee year 2025 and we are all pilgrims of hope add this pilgrimage to your to do list.
