A Prayer for Pentecost Sunday

On this day of Pentecost, may the moving of your Spirit not be to us a chasing after the wind, but a warm breeze of hope.

May the Church act as one body to bring love, joy, and your holy truth to every generation and people.
And may we also have the wisdom to receive these things graciously.

Thank you for your generosity:

Heavenly Father

As we come before you on this Pentecost day, we ask for your healing touch to be upon us.

We know that you are a God of healing and restoration, and we trust in your power to bring healing to our bodies, minds, and spirits.

We pray for those who are suffering from illness, pain, or disease.

We ask that you would bring healing to their bodies and relief from their suffering.

We pray that you would give them strength and courage to endure, knowing that you are with them always.

We pray for those who are struggling with emotional or mental health issues.

We ask that you would bring peace to their troubled minds and hearts, and that you would heal any emotional wounds or trauma.

We pray that they would feel your love and comfort in a tangible way.

We also pray for those who are in need of spiritual healing.

We ask that you would fill them with your Holy Spirit and renew their faith.

We pray that they would experience the joy and peace that comes from a deep relationship with you.

We know that you are a God of miracles, and we ask that you would perform miracles of healing in the lives of those we love.

We offer this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

Amen.
